2003-04 was a milestone year as the Charles H. Dater Foundation topped the $20 million plateau in grants made since its founding in 1985.

The Foundation awarded 92 grants totaling $1,697,000. Grants ranged from $1,000 to $250,000 and the median grant was $10,000.

More than 1,300 grants have been awarded to nearly 300 different organizations over the last nineteen years.

The Foundation is committed to Enriching the Lives of Children. Its mission: to make grants to non-profit organizations in the Greater Cincinnati area to carry out projects and programs that benefit children and focus in the areas of arts/culture, education, healthcare, social services and other community needs.

Businessman and philanthropist Charles H. Dater (1912-1993), a fourth generation Cincinnati, established the Foundation in 1985 to ensure that funding for worthwhile community programs would continue after his death.

The Foundation honors the memory and preserves the philanthropic commitment of Charles and his ancestors, whose hard work and business acumen over 150 years provided them with the opportunity to share their success with their community.

The Foundation officers and directors play an active role in the work of the Foundation, which has no full-time staff members. They perform the work of staff, reviewing hundreds of grant requests each year and making grants. They make site visits to current and potential grant recipients, monitor how grant dollars are being spent and seeking new beneficiaries whose program goals coincide with those of the Foundation.

More information about the Foundation is available at www.DaterFoundation.org, including an explanation of the grant application process and an application form, a list of frequently asked questions, and grantee success stories.

Arthritis Foundation - $5,000

The Arthritis Foundation is the only voluntary health association devoted to seeking the causes, prevention and cures for the more than 100 forms of arthritis. The Ohio River Valley American Juvenile Arthritis Organization is a Council of the Arthritis Foundation and its purpose is to promote awareness, education, and support for the special needs of children, teens, young adults, and families challenged with childhood rheumatic diseases. The work of AJAO is to minimize the negative aspects of juvenile arthritis through public awareness activities, arthritis education programs, for children and their parents and the establishment of family-to-family support networks. The program attempts to make contact with at least 10% of the population with juvenile arthritis related diseases or about 1,400 children and their families. In 2004 the AJAO was successful in distributing over 75,000 pieces of literature and involving families in conferences, "Kids Get Arthritis Too" events, Jingle Bell Runs, and Arthritis Walks.

Babies Milk Fund - $10,000

The Babies Milk Fund Pediatric Care is a 95-year-old private non-profit organization dedicated to improving the health of Greater Cincinnati's neediest children. BMF conducts over 26,000 patient visits annually. Some 45% originate from the Clifton child health offices where the Dater Foundation's gift of $10,000 helped expand the number of clinical exam rooms from 10 to 14. BMF doctors care for each child as an individual and bring the latest research-based disease and condition management to children who would otherwise receive only emergency-room interventions or go without care.

Be Concerned - $1,000

Be Concerned is a nonprofit supplemental food program based in Covington that has been serving the homeless, low income and disabled residents of Kenton, Campbell and Boone counties for the past 36 years. In addition to the food program, which serves 300 to 400 families each week, the organization provides hygiene products, housewares and new and used clothing for clients. An annual Christmas Store distributes food, clothing and toys. Be Concerned is supported through foundation grants and donations from schools, churches, businesses and individuals. A Dater grant provided funding for the purchase for new toys for our Christmas Store in 2003, serving 1000 low-income children under the age of 18.

Bethany House Services - $15,000

The organization collaborates with others to provide housing, education and assistance programs to homeless and disadvantaged women and children. Bethany is the lead agency in the Family Shelter Partnership Program which is a model of cooperation and best practices in service delivery to homeless children and families at risk. The Dater grant for the Child/Parent Connection Program provided staffing and materials to reduce feelings of isolation and enhance experiences of connection for 100 homeless women and 250 children at Bethany Emergency Shelter. The grant also helped to provide crisis intervention services, therapeutic interactions, and life skills lessons resulting in a 75% improvement of family bonding and overall level of functioning for the children and their mothers.

Big Brothers Big Sisters - $6,000

This non-profit mentoring organization serves an 11 county, Tri-State area. The local chapter is the 16th largest agency of a national organization that serves nearly 300,000 children through 490 affiliates. The Dater grant funded 483 children in a school-based mentoring program during the 2003-04 school year. Volunteers made weekly visits to children at school focusing on tutoring, critical life skill development and interpersonal growth. The children served by the program were at extreme risk for drop out, substance abuse, early parenting and criminal involvement. At the end of the school year, 100% of the children were still enrolled, 98% of the children were not abusing drugs, 99% of the girls were not pregnant and 98% of the children were not involved with the juvenile justice system.

Boys & Girls Clubs - $10,000

The Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Cincinnati was founded in 1939 and is celebrating its 65th anniversary of service to youth during 2004. BGCGC serves approximately 6,000 youth members annually in five clubs located in Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky. A Dater grant funds Project Learn and provides school-age children with access to academic and literacy support and tutoring. The goal is to improve their ability to learn both at school and in life as well as to boost their academic and social self-esteem levels. Dater grants have made significant contributions in prior years to the other BGCGC programs supporting the development of youth.

CISE - $30,000, $20,000

The Catholic Inner-City Schools Education Fund of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati supports students at eight Catholic elementary schools in Cincinnati's core neighborhoods. A diverse student body receives a quality faith-based education through help from the CISE Fund. A Dater grant funds the Accelerated Math and Reading programs. The computerized math program allows students to advance at a pace according to their own abilities. The reading program develops comprehension skills and fosters a love for reading. Other Dater grants fund a science enrichment program whereby students gain hands-on lessons through field trips and in-school demonstrations that reinforce lessons learned in the classroom and a health education program.

Center for Peace Education - $4,000

The Center for Peace Education provides youth and adults in school communities with the training, resources, strategies, and experiences needed to value differences and resolve conflict constructively. The long-term vision for CPE is a more peaceful Greater Cincinnati community. For the past eight years, CPE has partnered with the Intercommunity Justice and Peace Center to host summer Peace Camps. A Dater grant allowed for 6-12 year olds to attend this free day camp in Over the Rhine, Northside and Walnut Hills. Peace Camp teaches skills in affirmation, communication, appreciation of differences, creative conflict management, and cooperation through experiential activities and art projects. The camp provides an opportunity for children from diverse, socio-economic, cultural, racial and other backgrounds to have fun and learn from others in a safe environment during the summer.

Children's Home of Cincinnati - $5,000

The Children's Home of Cincinnati is a private, non-profit organization that changes the lives of 4,000 children and their families each year through services and programs in four distinct areas: Adoption, Early Childhood, Education and Mental Health. The mission is to provide individualized services of superior quality that promote the healthy growth and development of children and their families so they can learn together, grow together and be together. A Dater grant provided partial scholarships for Camp-I-Can, a nine-week summer day camp for children ages 5-12 years. Scholarships are provided for families who are unable to afford summer care and are not eligible for county child care assistance. Campers participated in a variety of activities such as swimming, field trips, crafts, community service projects, nutrition and physical fitness education, and drama, music, literacy and math enrichment.

Children's International Summer Villages - $6,000

CISV is an international volunteer organization working to promote peace and understanding through friendship among children in all parts of the world. The Dater Foundation provided support for CISV Cincinnati's three week Summer Camp program held in July at Sands Montessori School. Delegations of 14 year-olds from Brazil, Italy, Mexico, Czech Republic, Spain, Turkey, Finland, Sweden and the USA participated in the "Free to be you and me" Summer Camp. The camp's program emphasized peace education activities with the 36 teen delegates assuming most leadership roles and responsibility for program planning. The Dater Foundation's support has enabled CISV Cincinnati's volunteers to host an international program locally for each of the past six years.

The Children's Theatre - $50,000

The Children's Theatre, founded in 1924, introduces young audiences to the performing arts through professional, fully staged productions that appeal to parents and educators because they teach morals and values. Four one-hour children's productions aimed at children ages four and up are presented each season. The Children's Theatre strives to include dance, visual art, opera and a variety of musical styles in its repertoire, helping children to understand all aspects of theatre. The goal is to entertain and delight audiences through quality, family-friendly arts entertainment at an affordable price. As a Season Sponsor, the Foundation is a major supporter of the theatre's lineup of family classics that hold valuable lessons for today youngsters. Through a series of school and public performances, The Children's Theatre reaches more than 85,000 children and families each season.

Cincinnati Art Museum - $250,000, $15,000, $5,000

The Cincinnati Art Museum's exhibitions and collections of art are a rich source of learning for all ages. Over the past year, the Dater Foundation has made possible two new investments in the growing area of education at the Museum. A major grant supported the renovation of the Fath Auditorium, making this important public space more comfortable and fully accessible. The Dater Foundation also supported the launch of Focus, a quarterly publication combining all of the Museum's educational programs. Focus is delivered to 12,000 teachers, as well as families and Museum members, and made available at the Museum and Greater Cincinnati library branches. This new resource keeps the region informed of the many learning opportunities available at the Cincinnati Art Museum. Another grant supported education outreach programs.

Cincinnati Arts Association - $15,000

CAA was founded in 1992 to serve as a manager, presenter and educator. CAA's mission is to present a broad range of high quality performing and visual arts programs; develop diverse audiences and foster an appreciation of the arts. CAA's Education and Community Relations Program presents a high quality arts program to ensure that all children will be exposed to a broad range of art forms while validating the arts of all cultures as an expression of that culture. The Dater grant supports all three components of the CAA's Education program: SchoolTime, Artists on Tour and the Overture Awards High School Scholarship Program. Sixty-three programs were offered by 27 local artists, stimulating interest in the arts while supporting academic curriculum. The Dater grant enabled the CAA to give special attention to minority recruitment and participation in the Overture Awards.

Cincinnati Ballet - $5,000

The CincyDance! program, now seven years old, provides free dance instruction for students ages 7-17 from four Title I schools in Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky: DeBois Academy, Walnut Hills Elementary School, Christ Emmanuel Christian Academy and Glenn O. Swing Elementary School. Teaching artists from Cincinnati Ballet work with beginning dancers at their schools, while advanced dancers are provided full scholarships to the Otto M. Budig Academy of Cincinnati Ballet. All students are provided with dance attire, including ballet slippers, leotards, tights, etc. CincyDance! students have participated in the prestigious Venture Dancers program, and performed with the pro-professional company of Cincinnati Ballet in The Nutcracker. CincyDance! provides the opportunity for involvement with the performing arts for students who have little access to arts enrichment programs, and allows talented, underserved students to pursue dance training at a professional level. Over 200 students are enrolled in the program.

Cincinnati Children's Hospital - $50,000

The Dater Cancer Gene Therapy Program at Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center works to find effective therapies for children with some of the most perplexing cases of cancer in the world. A Dater grant of $250,000 over five years, now in its third year, has supported staff in the Divisions of Hematology/Oncology and Experimental Hematology in breaking new ground. Looking at cancer patterns and treatments at the sub-cellular level, the divisions work closely together to find answers for treating very high-risk brain tumors in children, and Fanconi anemia, a fatal genetic condition in which children develop aplastic anemia, leukemia or cancer. The Division of Hematology/Oncology treats nearly 2,500 children and diagnoses 100 new cases of cancer every year. The Foundation's support is making it possible for Cincinnati Children's press ahead to find more answers, increase survival rate and improve quality of life for as many seriously ill children as possible.

Cincinnati Recreation Foundation - $5,000

An annual program of the Cincinnati Recreation Commission that impacts young people is RiverTrek, a week-long outdoor camping and canoeing adventure down the Little Miami River. In addition to the journey, participants attend two days of training. They make new friends, learn to work as a team, develop leadership skills, and come to appreciate the environment as they explore the outdoors. RiverTrek allows area youth to mature in a supportive experience of self-discovery that builds confidence and encourages responsibility in young adults 13-17 years of age. A Dater grant allows CRC to make this experience available at no cost opportunity to 30 area teen applicants from urban and suburban Greater Cincinnati.

Cincinnati Scholarship Foundation - $50,000/ $15,000

The Cincinnati Scholarship Foundation was established in 1918 to financially assist students in the Cincinnati Public Schools system in completing their high school education. A college financial assistance program was added in the 1920's, and both programs remain in effect today. A Dater grant of $50,000 last year provided scholarships to 20 area students, all of whom with proven financial need. Six of the students earned their degrees in the spring. A $15,000 grant from the Dater Foundation allowed the CSF to serve 18 students from Dater High School last year with financial incentives, workshops, a tutorial program, and a book club, none of which would have been possible without the grant.

Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra - $30,000

The Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra is the fifth oldest orchestra in the United States and the largest cultural arts organization in the Greater Cincinnati region. With its first Young People's Concert held in 1920, CSO has traditionally placed a strong emphasis on education and community outreach programs. A Dater grant benefits nearly 60,000 students, parents, and teachers through the CSO's Sound Discoveries: Music for Life, Music for the Community, and Music for a Career. Sound Discoveries provides an innovative, exciting means to enhance learning across the curriculum. Through classroom, concert experiences, and performance opportunities, Tri-state area students study, analyze, evaluate, synthesize, and enjoy music as a relevant and enriching part of their lives and studies.

Cincinnati Therapeutic Riding and Horsemanship - $15,000

CRH has been committed to serving children and adults with disabilities through therapeutic horseback riding and hippotherapy for nineteen years. Therapeutic horseback riding is an activity that enhances physical and mental skills, aids in mobilization, promotes socialization and communication, and builds independence and self-confidence. Riders are encouraged to reach their fullest capacities in a non-traditional environment that combines therapy and fun. Activities on horseback include exercise to increase balance, flexibility, directionality and relaxation. A Dater grant helps CRH to cover fifty percent of the cost for every lesson for every rider.

Clovernook Center for the Blind - $5,000

Clovernook's Summer Discovery Camps give visually impaired youngsters the opportunity to participate in stimulating and challenging cultural, educational, and recreational activities. Operated primarily in day-camp style, with the exception of an occasional overnight camp-out, Summer Discovery runs in two or three week sessions, Monday through Friday, June through August, and includes transportation to and from activities, all necessary equipment and supplies for the activities, and nutritious daily meals and snacks.

"Campers" actively participate in the selection of their activities, and enjoy a variety of indoor and outdoor activities, as desired by the participants, approved by their parents, and implemented and supervised by Clovernook staff. Additionally, computer skills and mobility and orientation instruction are included as necessary and desirable, and older teens also have the option of including job readiness skills training to their curriculum. A Dater grant funds a major part of this annual project.

Comprehensive Community Child Care - $5,000

4C is Greater Cincinnati's early childhood education resource and referral service. Founded in 1972, the organization works to improve early learning opportunities in Southwest Ohio and Northern Kentucky. A Dater grant is being used to help start the Institute for Early Childhood Excellence, which will greatly improve the skills and knowledge of those working with young children in early childhood settings across the community. The program will reach over 2,000 child care professionals each year, improving the school-readiness of 16,000 children.

Council on Child Abuse of Southern Ohio - $5,000

Council staff members provide a variety of child abuse and peer abuse/bully prevention programs through presentations to children in grades K-12, school personnel and parents. A Dater grant is funding 100 classroom presentations to children in schools throughout the Greater Cincinnati area. As a result of the classroom presentations, children will learn abuse prevention and personal safety strategies. In addition, they will have opportunities to disclose current or previous abuse, neglect or bully incidents which could require further adult intervention. School personnel, local authorities and community resources will be contacted and utilized to provide appropriate intervention, treatment and support services.

Crohn's & Colitis Foundation - $5,000

The Southwest Ohio Chapter of the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation of America (CCFA), established in 1995, is dedicated to curing and preventing Crohn's disease and ulcerative colitis through research, and to improving the quality of life of children and adults affected by these digestive diseases through education and support. The Chapter serves Cincinnati, Dayton, Northern Kentucky and southeastern Indiana, and it provides a number of highly respected programs, including Camp Independence. The Dater Foundation grant made summer camp possible for four children who suffer with Crohn's or colitis and who did not have the financial resources to attend on their own.

Delhi Historical Society - $5,000

Founded in 1977, the Society maintains a historic home and property (the Farmhouse Museum) with permanent and changing exhibitions. A historic working greenhouse is the highlight of the outdoor exhibits. A Dater grant was matched by the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) to endow the Horticulture Summer Camp for Youth, a new, lasting initiative that introduces kindergarten and elementary students (ages 5 to 9) to the greenhouse industry through a summer camp. The primary purpose of the Camp is to instill in children a love for outdoor work and such knowledge of natural forces and their laws as shall develop character and efficiency. The Society has a committed group of volunteers who maintain the landscaping and floral gardens during the spring and summer. These adults enjoy working with the young campers, providing the opportunity for a cross-generational learning experience.

Discover Health - $15,000

Founded in 1998, the organization provides educational programs that help children develop and practice lifelong healthy habits. A Dater grant provided the health education program for students in grades 2 to 6 at the eight CISE (Catholic Inner City Schools) elementary schools. Professional health educators use a creative educational curriculum and state of the art teaching tools (including a 38-foot mobile classroom) to reinforce the learnings for students. The classroom portion of the program stresses nutrition, physical activity, and hygiene. The organization has served more than 40,000 students in its five years of existence.

Down Syndrome Association - $25,000

The Down Syndrome Association of Greater Cincinnati has been providing adoption consultation for children with Down syndrome by linking birth families with potential adoptive families for over 20 years. The Adoption Awareness Program focuses on helping families who are seeking to adopt as well as assisting families who are interested in making an adoption plan for their children born with Down syndrome. More than 100 connections are facilitated each year. Support from the Dater Foundation has allowed the organization to expand its Multi-Media Lending Library, which now contains over 900 resources including books, videos, pamphlets, journals and a wide range of handouts.

The East End Adult Education Center - $5,000

The Center is located in the East End of Cincinnati and serves students from all areas of Cincinnati. The organization celebrated its 30th year of operation in March 2004. The Center helps participating students to finish high school and enter college or attain a better job. Year-end testing revealed that students who attended regularly made at least one year of progress in their educational level. Participants function at the literacy levels from grades 1-5 up to the 11th grade level. Many students have learning disabilities that have caused them to fail in school. Students range in age from 16 to 70. The Center served 130 students and graduated 25 students in the past year. A Dater grant funded the education of five young people. The Foundation has been a long time supporter of this educational program.

Easter Seals of Southwestern Ohio - $5,000

The southwestern Ohio organization is one of 450 service sites throughout the United States and is dedicated to helping children and adults with disabilities achieve and maintain independence, dignity, ability and empowerment. The Summer Therapy program serves children with communication disorders, the number one problem for youngsters with disabilities. Comprised of about 200 children from predominantly low-income families, the program is designed for children who receive therapy in school during the school year but whose families cannot afford therapy during summer vacation. The summer therapy ensures the children return to school without having lost any of the skills they worked so hard to acquire during the school year.

Elder High School - $5,000

A new technology outreach program “tech-reach” is an ever expanding educational opportunity for Price Hill community members to learn more about computers in effort to help close the digital divide. A Dater grant funded the purchase of software for two computer labs with 25 computers in each lab. After school programs such as math tutoring help Price Hill area children improve computer skills. Evaluation of the after school programs and their success is ongoing, but positive impact has been demonstrated by the progress participating children are making in school. The computer labs allow students at different intelligence levels to participate at their own pace and work in an individualized environment.

Emanuel Community Center - $40,000

Emanuel is a 133-year old organization with Christian values whose mission is to enhance the potential and dignity of members of the Over-the-Rhine Community. This is accomplished through educational development and athletics, family services, community enrichment, and partnerships with other groups. A Dater grant provides funding for the PASS program – Providing Academic Support for Schools. PASS provides programs and services to area parents and students, focusing on attendance, parental involvement and social behavior. Students do better and go farther in school when parents are involved and the arts are introduced.

The Foundation Center - $1,000

The Foundation Center's mission is to strengthen the nonprofit sector by advancing knowledge about U.S. philanthropy. The Cleveland library/learning center offers an up-to-date and well-organized collection of library materials about foundation and corporate grantmaking, the grantseeking process, nonprofit management, and related topics. The Center also offers a curriculum of free and full-day education and outreach programs. In 2003, the Center welcomed more than 4,500 visitors to our library/learning center, and staff offered presentations and programs off-site to an additional 1,000 people. The Dater Foundation made a grant to support the Center's outreach and assistance to grantseekers.

FreestoreFoodbank - $10,000

The FreestoreFoodbank is Cincinnati's largest provider of emergency food, products and services to assist needy individuals and families in a 20-county area of southern Ohio, northern Kentucky, and southeastern Indiana. At the FreestoreFoodbank's inner-city Client Services Center, families receive emergency food, housing assistance, clothing vouchers, employment counseling, healthcare access, bus tokens, and other forms of assistance as well as referrals. Of the more than 17,000 households served annually, one-third are families of three or more. Of the 40,000 persons receiving emergency food, half are children. A Dater grant was used to support the work of the Client Services Center on behalf of children.

Friends of Young Mothers - $20,000

The Friends of Young Mothers is located in the East Price Hill Office of Santa Maria Community Service Center on Warsaw Avenue. The Layette and Layette Extension Programs meet the critical needs of a baby born to a low or no income mother by giving her a layette to clothe the baby. Other necessary baby items are given according to special needs. A Dater grant provided funding for 102 layettes, 50 baby beds and mattresses, 45 car seats, and 125 cases of diapers in 2003. The Foundation's funding has enabled the organization to help mothers and newborns all over the Greater Cincinnati area that otherwise had nowhere else to turn.

Girl Scouts Great Rivers Council - $5,000

The Council's mission is to help girls grow up to be caring, competent, confident women. Serving more than 23,000 girls in southwest Ohio and southeast Indiana, Girl Scouting offers girls experiences to help them develop their leadership, problem solving, conflict resolution and decision making skills. Since 2000, Dater support has helped more than 1,800 girls have a fun, educational and rewarding Girl Scout experience. This past year, nearly 200 girls who needed financial assistance to participate in the Girl Scout program were supported by a Dater grant. Said one girl, "I've never been outside my neighborhood, except to go to school. It was neat to go to different places, meet other girls and learn new things."

The Greater Cincinnati Foundation: Learning Links - $50,000

An effective steward of the community's charitable resources since 1963, the Foundation inspires philanthropy in eight counties in Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana. A downtown office is conveniently located for providing service to donors and grantees. A Dater grant funded a major portion of this program and was combined with GCF funds to award 179 Learning Links Mini-Grants in 2004. These small grants of up to $1,000 each give teachers and other educators the opportunity to provide creative programs or special events for more than 20,000 area students. The Dater Foundation has been a partner to the Learning Links program for nine years.

The Greater Cincinnati Foundation: Summer-time Kids - $40,000

The Greater Cincinnati Foundation empowers donors to make a profound difference in the quality of human and community life in the Greater Cincinnati region. GCF is a community foundation serving an eight-county area. This year 141 Summertime Kids grants of up to $1,000 each were awarded to local nonprofit organizations that submitted project applications to a volunteer committee. The projects provided summer activities such as field trips, day camps, gardening, arts and crafts. More than 12,000 children were served by projects that were funded by Summertime Kids grants. A Dater grant funds a major part of this program.

GLAD House - $10,000

GLAD House celebrated six years of operation in February 2004. Some 370 children of substance abusing parents benefited from the After School and Summer Program (ASSP) and the GLAD Hands Club (GHC). The children and parents receive evidence based prevention programs for substance abuse. Importantly, the children also receive a mental health assessment, therapy and tutoring. The GHC provides re-enforcement for graduates of ASSP. As a result of funding from a Dater grant in 2003-04, all children who completed the ASSP passed into next grade. No children were expelled, only one child was suspended, and only three children had behavioral problems at school.

Historic Southwest Ohio - $20,000

Historic Southwest Ohio, Inc. (HSO) is a non-profit educational and cultural institution comprised of two museums: The Hauck House Museum in downtown Cincinnati and Heritage Village Museum, a 19th-century village recreated in Sharon Woods Park in Sharonville. A Dater grant funds an education program that brings the 19th century to life using hands-on, interactive events and activities involving the arts, culture, literature, social themes, and lifestyles through the use of our buildings, artifacts and grounds. Annually, more than 10,000 students participate in a variety of education programs, including Cincinnati's Runaway Slave Interactive Drama, Adventure Program, Civil War Bazaar, Summer Kids Camps, Apple Fest, Peek into the Past, Pioneer Program, Scout Programs and "History to Go" Outreach Programs. New in 2004, HSO opened a Hands-On History Center for Children, ages three and up. This new center features five learning areas where the youngest visitors can safely interact with 19th century artifacts and reproduction pieces. More than 23,000 adults and children learn how 19th century families lived, worked and played through guided tours, hands-on activities and special events.

Kids Helping Kids - $10,000, $2,000

Tri-State Drug Rehabilitation and Counseling, a non-profit long-term adolescent drug treatment program, has been providing treatment since 1981. Kids Helping Kids’ mission is to provide an intensive and effective, highly structured quality treatment for chemically dependent adolescents and their families. The ultimate goal of treatment is to give every adolescent the tools necessary to achieve a productive, drug-free lifestyle and to restore happy and healthy family relationships. The program uses a therapeutic community model that gives long-term residential care to clients. The program provides scholarships for treatment to adolescents and their families who would otherwise not be able to afford treatment. The Dater Foundation has supported the Kids Helping Kids Scholarship Fund since 1988. Kids Helping Kids provides treatment to families within a 150-mile radius of the treatment facility, which is located in Clermont County. Since its inception, the program has served over 1200 families.

LifeCenter - $15,000, $15,000

LifeCenter Organ Donor Network’s mission is to encourage and coordinate the donation of human organs and tissues for transplantation. LifeCenter began operating as an independent, nonprofit organ procurement organization in 1981. Dater grants funded the Celebrate Life Calendar Project for 2004 and 2005. The calendar highlights organ recipients and donor families in the Greater Cincinnati area. The purpose for developing a high quality complimentary calendar is to strengthen goodwill and continue educating the community and medical staff about organ and tissue donation. LifeCenter learned from its initial 2004 Calendar Project that distributing calendars in the community instills a more positive perception regarding the issue of organ and tissue donation.

Linton Music - $10,000

Linton Music is the umbrella name for three different chamber music concert series: Linton Chamber Music Series; Encore! Linton; and Linton Peanut Butter & Jam Sessions. Celebrating its 25th anniversary last season, Linton draws on talented members of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra and visiting artists to fulfill its mission: to touch, teach and enrich the lives of both audiences and musicians. Linton Music has become nationally recognized for its Peanut Butter & Jam Sessions for 2 to 5-year-olds. This series has introduced chamber music to 7,000 youngsters in just three years at locations throughout Greater Cincinnati. "Music making among friends" – especially Linton's youngest friends -- is supported through the PB&J Sessions by a Dater grant.

The Literacy Network - $1,000

The Literacy Network of Greater Cincinnati focuses on raising public awareness about the literacy cause and linking students and tutors with appropriate literacy programs. A Dater grant helped fund the Children's Basic Reading Program (CBRP) classes during the 2003-04 school year. CBRP is a special two-year program designed specifically for children in grades 1-4 with profound reading disabilities. The Literacy Network served 11 children during the 2003-04 school year through two after-school CBRP classes. Over 80% of the students achieved or surpassed the desired results on the program's post-tests. Some of the students increased over three grade levels in either word attack and/or spelling skills.

Mercy Franciscan at St. John - $10,000

Mercy Franciscan is a social service agency that has been committed to providing emergency services to individuals and families in crisis for more than 65 years. Programs are designed to effectively guide individuals and families toward self-sufficiency. A Dater grant provides funding to support the operations of the Young Men's Program. This program focuses exclusively on young men, ages 12 to 17, who reside in Over-the-Rhine or other communities where there is a high incidence of crime and violence, drug activity, school drop-out rates, and few social or employment opportunities. The program is designed to provide support and enrichment activities to help young men become responsible adults through teaching proper decision-making skills, abstinence, violence prevention, career exploration, and financial management. The program also provides field trips and cultural outings as additional opportunities for growth and development. Peer-to-peer discussion and support groups are held with more than 25 young men on a continuing basis. More than 200 youths have participated in the program in 2004. In addition, hundreds more young men are reached through an Outreach Program in schools, recreation centers, and juvenile justice centers.

Muscular Dystrophy Association - $5,000

MDA is a voluntary health agency ... a dedicated partnership between scientists and concerned citizens aimed at conquering neuromuscular diseases that affect more than a million Americans. MDA combats neuromuscular diseases through programs of worldwide research, comprehensive medical and community services, and far-reaching professional and public health education. The Dater grant assisted with the funding of the annual Summer Camp Program. Some 58 children ages 6-21 participated. The MDA Summer Camp provides a loving environment where everyone is accepted regardless of his or her disease. Barriers fall away as accommodations are made to make games and activities accessible. Interacting with children who have similar challenges help boost morale and with forming long-term friendships with other children and counselors at camp. Confidence is gained when a child succeeds in activities, such as swimming, riding in a canoe, horseback riding and dancing.

National Conference for Community and Justice - $3,000

NCCJ is a human relations organization that empowers and supports community leaders as they work to make the community more inclusive and just. The Anytown Youth Leadership Institute begins with a week-long experience for high school students that challenges them to not only imagine an ideal community, but empowers them to create one. It provides students the opportunity to live, work and socialize with a diverse group of people, creating a community based on inclusion, respect and understanding; one that will serve as a model to the larger population. Through experiential activities, workshops, role playing, discussion groups and more, students explore the complexities of some of the most important social issues facing us today. Students return to their schools able to initiate and facilitate interracial dialogues, enhance existing clubs and programs, educate other students through forums, workshops, and presentations, and coordinate partnering exchanges with diverse schools through the Anytown network. Anytown continues throughout the school year as students participate in a variety of workshops, trainings, community events and related activities.

North Fairmount Community Center - $5,000

The North Fairmount Community Center was established in 1979 and serves the communities of North Fairmount, East Westwood, Fay Apartments and English Woods through a network of social services including home ownership, affordable rental property, adult education, health services, day care, senior centers, recreation centers, business development and land banking. A Dater grant supported an after-school Youth Arts Program which exposed about 25 to 30 school age children to many cultural experiences both at the Carll Street Family Center as well as through trips to a variety of events around the city. Children learned about the arts through multicultural, hands-on activities. This program was developed to help children succeed in school because all the research concludes that children exposed to the arts do better academically.

North Presbyterian Church - $5,000

The church that Charles Dater attended in his youth is located in the Cincinnati neighborhood of Northside will celebrate its 150th anniversary in 2005. A Dater grant is funding weekly activities for 34 at-risk Northside teens who come together in community for fun, food and character development. The grant also provides for an additional 28 teens who attend occasionally during the year. A program goal is to help young people break the cycle of urban despair one life at a time. Over the last three years, 13 participants have graduated from high school, and six of them are attending college, one is in the military and four are employed full-time.

Northside Community School - $5,000

The Northside Community School is located in the historic neighborhood of Northside and serves several communities in the Cincinnati area. The school has been in existence and serving the community for over twenty years. A Dater grant is used in part to support day and evening program operations. When people come to the Northside community school, they are tested to determine their academic level. Students receive one-on-one tutoring designed especially for their needs. An onsite practice G.E.D. test eases anxieties and improves test scores. The Foundation is a long-time support of this activity in a community where Charles Dater once lived.

One Way Farm Children's Home - $10,000

One Way Farm Children's Home of Fairfield, Ohio, has been in operation for 29 years. Children, ages 8 to 21, regardless of race, religion, color, national origin, or background come to One Way Farm from abused, abandoned and troubled situations. A Dater grant is funding Psychiatric and Counseling services. This program provides psychiatric and medication evaluation through weekly counseling for children under professional care to make reunification or permanent placement possible for a child who is fragile and in need of these services. The Foundation has been a major supporter of this ongoing program.

Our Daily Bread - $15,000

Located in the inner-city of Cincinnati, Our Daily Bread opened in January 1985 with the mission of feeding a morning meal to the poor and offering afternoon hospitality to all. An average of 450 persons are served each day. Since 1985, Our Daily Bread has grown to include an afternoon program for children called Kid's Cafe which provides a well balanced meal, crafts, games, outings and lots of fun for all. The Dater Foundation has been an integral part of the organization's work, funding food costs, outings for the children, a social worker and emergency services for the indigent.

Aaron W. Perlman Center - $5,000

The Aaron W. Perlman Center, a division of United Cerebral Palsy of Greater Cincinnati, is a regional leader in providing technology support for children with physical disabilities and chronic physical conditions. Located at Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center, the Perlman Center provides innovative programs and services to more than 200 children and their families each year and supports most area schools. The Dater grant is funding technology-based enrichment programs to help strengthen literacy skills in school-age children with severe physical disabilities. These youngsters often have significant difficulty learning to read and write using traditional methods. The project also provides support to community schools in their efforts to integrate technology in the classroom.

Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County - $20,000

The Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County is one of the largest and busiest public library systems in the United States. A 20-year, annual commitment of $20,000 by the Foundation has supported the Westwood branch, located in a neighborhood where Charles Dater lived for many years. This year's grant was used for the purchase of additional juvenile materials such as books, books on tape, DVDs and music CDs. In addition, audiovisual equipment will be purchased that will be used in a new after-school program called "Read to Reel Movie Day." The Children's Librarian and the Teen Librarian will show videos at regularly scheduled times. The expectation is that this structured activity will prove to be an enjoyable program for latch-key children who visit the branch after school and must stay until an adult picks them up, sometimes as late as 6:00 p.m.

Purcell Marian High School - $20,000

Located in Walnut Hills, Purcell Marian High School is Catholic, co-educational, multi-racial and urban. Respecting diverse academic levels, faith traditions, and socioeconomic backgrounds, the school actively commits to innovative education of the whole person. A Dater grant is funding an American Sign Language program. ALS is an excellent alternative for students who have difficulty processing written and/or oral language. Including ASL in the curriculum allows students with a wide variety of gifts and handicaps to participate on a more level playing field. Sixty-six students, or 12% of the student body, participated in ASL classes in 2003-04, and the program is considered key to enabling many of them to attend college. A Dater grant provided funding for the program for two years through the end of the 2004-05 school year.

Ruth Lyons Children's Fund - $5,000

2004 is the 65th year for the Ruth Lyons Children's Fund. In 1939, legendary WLWT television personality Ruth Lyons started the fund by asking her radio listeners for donations to a fund that would help hospitalized children. Today the Fund serves 27 hospitals in Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana and has raised over $20 million. A Dater grant helps to supply year round parties, playrooms and gifts to those children who are hospitalized, with particular emphasis placed on the holiday season when spirits can be low for children who are away from home and in hospitals. This helps provide a pleasant atmosphere for the children in various accredited hospitals throughout the local community.

Santa Maria Community Services - $20,000

SMCS has been "Building Individual and Community Pride" since 1897. Its four neighborhood centers are located throughout Price Hill and the Sedamsville/Riverside area. SMCS' vision is for families to thrive, people to share a mutual respect and concern for each other, and schools and businesses to be vibrant in neighborhoods that are clean, safe and nurturing. SMCS' area of expertise is parenting, health and wellness and community development. A Dater grant is providing funding for 600 children from early childhood to age nineteen to participate in structured leadership development groups, social skills groups, community events, and organized sports such as Tae Kwon Do. The activities are designed to counter cultural norms of violence-tolerant attitudes, teen and single parenting, poverty and isolation.

Starfire Council of Greater Cincinnati - $40,000

Starfire Council serves young people in the Greater Cincinnati area who have developmental disabilities such as Autism, Down Syndrome, Mental Retardation and Cerebral Palsy. A Dater grant has funded service outings that provide 450 Starfire members with disabilities an opportunity to "give back" to the community. These activities allow individuals with disabilities to utilize their capabilities and talents while impacting the community at-large. The members of Starfire collectively volunteer more than 4,500 times annually, benefiting over 35 organizations and 175,000 individuals. The Foundation is a long time supporter of Starfire programs, enabling the organization to grow to become the largest organization of its kind in the country.

Stepping Stones - $25,000

Stepping Stones Center provides programming to children as young as 18 months through adult age in several categories. Year round Early Intervention Services and wrap-around child care at two locations -- Allyn Services in Batavia and Stepping Stones in Indian Hill -- provide inclusive programming for preschoolers with disabilities/delays alongside their typical peers. A Dater grant of $25,000 assists Stepping Stones with early education services for children with disabilities in the only full day preschool/childcare program in the community. In addition, these programs are also offered: Day Camp Allyn and Day Camp Stepping Stone; Summer Resident Camp for children and adults; weekend respite care for children and adults with disabilities; year round Adult Habilitation for adults with severe/multiple disabilities; year round Adult Independent Services including job exploration/training and placements.

Taft Museum of Art - $100,000, $30,000

One of the finest small art museums in America, the Taft Museum of Art houses a collection of European and American old master paintings, Chinese porcelains, and European decorative arts amassed by Charles and Anna Taft. Once their home, the museum is also one of the oldest structures in Cincinnati. A Dater commitment supporting the Taft's renovation and expansion project in the amount of $500,000 is funded through five annual grants of $100,000 has made possible the Dater Education Room, a space devoted to studio and classroom activities for school groups, children, families, and adults. The new home of our summer art day camp, youth studio, adult studio, and Families Create! programs, the Dater Education Room is a very flexible space that also serves as an exhibition space for smaller exhibitions and a classroom for school-related programming. Another Dater grant funded three outreach programs during the 2003-2004 school year: Artists Reaching Classrooms (ARC), a unique educational initiative for high school art students that introduces them to local artists; Taft Thursdays for Teachers, a quarterly program for local educators that introduces them to the resources of the Taft Museum of Art; and Families Create!, a series of intergenerational Saturday programs that introduce children and their families to art appreciation and art-making. These funds enabled 247 students in the ARC program to interact with and be mentored by 18 professional regional artists and gave them the opportunity to exhibit their own art in a gallery setting. Dater funds supported busses for students to visit the Museum and artists' studios, and purchased materials and supplies required to prepare and install the ARC exhibition. The Dater grant provided nearly full funding for Taft Thursdays for Teachers. Each of the 140 teachers received lesson plans and models of integrated curriculum based on teaching from and with museum objects. The Dater grant provided over half the funding for Families Create! programs. 440 children and their significant adults participated in 10 programs where they learned about the arts while spending valuable time with each other.

Teen Response - $5,000.00

Founded in 1992 by former police officer John Keuffer, Teen Response, Inc. has earned over 60 local, state, national and international awards for excellence for its work on behalf of young people. A Dater grant is funding a monthly teen talk radio show on WCIN hosted by two teenagers. The grant is also being used to support teens in their outreach into the community. The organization's OutReach Program and Financial Literacy Program have served over 17,000 youth in 25 Tri-State area schools. Community service projects to include work at Tender Mercies in Over the Rhine and fund-raising support of various youth charities. Twenty-two Teen Response youths have earned awards for 200-plus hours of annual service. Dater funding is helping our program continue to be a leader in creative services for youth. The organization has used the Dater grant to leverage other dollars to expand services.

Theatre IV - $5,000

Theatre IV is Greater Cincinnati's largest in-school touring theatre and will celebrate its 30th season in 2005. Each year the company performs for nearly 80,000 school children and families through nearly 400 performances. A Dater Foundation grant in 2003 helped in Theatre IV's ongoing Audience Development Initiative. During the 2003-2004 season, 29% of all Theatre IV shows were provided to schools for free or at significantly reduced prices. Many of these schools were in the community's neediest areas. In addition, the Development Initiative encompassed Theatre IV's on-going collaboration with the Taft Museum of Art, presenting free family performances off-site during the Taft's recent renovation; and with Cincinnati Children's Hospital and Medical Center as part of the Youth Injury Prevention Program which uses health education and the Theatre IV show, Give Us This Day, to reduce injury in the African-American community. Dater grants have supported Theatre IV's Audience Development Initiative since 2000.

Urban League of Greater Cincinnati - $50,000

One of 114 affiliates of the National Urban League, the ULGC was founded in 1949. The organization's mission is to eliminate the barriers of racism and for all African Americans and others at risk by promoting their economic self-sufficiency and entrepreneurship through effective leadership in the areas of comprehensive employment, youth and family development and advocacy. A Dater grant funded the Strong Families/Strong program for students in Burton, Rockdale and South Avondale elementary schools. The program touches over 1,000 low-income students and includes tutoring, parent education, mentoring, extracurricular activities and after-school and summer programming. Results have been seen in improved attendance and promotion rates and a reduction in suspensions and expulsions.

University of Cincinnati College of Medicine - $1,000

Med Mentors is a one-on-one mentoring program by students of the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine benefiting students in the Cincinnati Public School system. The program involves 90 UC medical students who establish a mentoring relationship with CPS students during the four years that they are undergoing their training to be physicians. They regularly tutor mentees and encourage them to excel academically, and they try to enrich the lives of the mentees by taking them to cultural events. A Dater grant allowed 38 mentors to take their mentees to venues like the Omnimax Theater, the ballet, the theatre and Tall Stacks.

University of Cincinnati Foundation - $10,000

The University of Cincinnati is a comprehensive, state-assisted university with an enrollment of almost 35,000 students with nationally ranked programs in music, design, architecture and medicine. During the 2003-04 academic year, 12 students were awarded scholarships ranging from $1,000 to $1,500 through a Dater grant to the Charles H. Dater Scholarship Fund at the University, Charles' alma mater. This fund provides a significant resource for young people in Ohio to attend college and also enables the University of Cincinnati to attract and retain promising students. Most recipients are juniors and seniors, and the award provides an important resource for them to complete their undergraduate education. Students receiving scholarships represented the Colleges of Engineering; Design, Art, Architecture & Planning; College-Conservatory of Music and Business.

World Piano Competition - $10,000

The Dater BBB (Bach-Beethoven-Brahms) Club is an outreach program of The World Piano Competition, the Tri-State's largest interactive live-audience event for 7,000 children, ages 5-16. Some seventeen events are held throughout the year at the Aronoff Center and other venues. The typical comment from young people attending is, "I hate classical music, but I liked this." The program strives to influence everyday living and self-development by bringing greatness to others. A Dater grant supporting the BBB Club enables children from low-income families to experience the beauty of classical music in a way not usually available to them.

Xavier University - $16,000

As a community of inquiry grounded in the Catholic Jesuit tradition, Xavier University is dedicated to engaging and forming students intellectually, morally and spiritually, with rigor and compassion toward lives of solidarity, service, and success. Xavier's Summer Service Internship Program fosters young people's commitment to community service by placing college and high school students in full-time service internships each summer. In 2004, 20 college and 16 high school interns provided approximately 10,500 hours of service to 21 agencies. A Dater grant funded stipends and expenses for six college interns who worked in agencies that serve children. These interns, who were placed at Children's Inc., the Children's Home of Cincinnati, Project Connect, IMAGO, LeBlond Boys' and Girls' Club, and SUMA, served approximately 240 youth each day, for contact hours totaling almost 84,000 over the 10 weeks of their internship.

YMCA Clippard Family Branch - $15,000

The Clippard Branch of the YMCA of Greater Cincinnati is located in Colerain Township and celebrated its 20th anniversary in August 2004. The branch is the largest in the Tri-State in terms of members and program participants. A Dater grant funded 150 weeks of scholarships in the Y's 11-week Summer Campership program benefiting 78 children who lacked the financial resources to participate. More than 250 youngsters age 3 to 13 participate in the program, which features education, character development and fun. Most time is spent in a natural outdoor environment. The Foundation is a long-time supporter of Summer Campership and has made significant contributions in prior years to the Y's indoor water park, aerobic studio and Child-watch Nursery.

32nd Degree Masonic Learning Center - $25,000

The Cincinnati 32nd Degree Masonic Learning Center for Children opened in January 1996 and provides tutoring in reading, writing and spelling to children with dyslexia. Services are free of charge to parents whose children are in the program. Dyslexia is a neurological learning disability characterized by difficulties with accurate and/or fluent word recognition and by poor spelling and decoding abilities, and its treatment is educational. Since its opening, the Learning Center has served over three hundred children from the Greater Cincinnati area. Students enrolled at the Center range in age from 7 to 16 years. During the Center's summer program, in addition to tutoring children with dyslexia, teacher-training courses are offered in multi-sensory, structured, analytic phonics instruction. Forty children received free tutoring at the Learning Center this past summer, and 46 teachers from the Greater Cincinnati area took the advanced or basic practicum courses in multi-sensory teaching methods. A Dater grant almost fully funds the summer program.

Grant Request/ Application Process

The Dater Foundation wants to make the Grant Request/Application process as easy as possible for organizations seeking financial support.

The Foundation's web site -- www.DaterFoundation.org. -- features a wealth of information.

The "Grants" section includes:

- Grant Guidelines
- Grant Request/Application Form (downloadable in Word and PDF files)
- Grant Evaluation Report criteria

These items are also available by calling the Foundation's office at 513/241-2658.

Grantmaking Focus, Process and Timing

The Foundation makes grants to private, non-profit organizations and public agencies in Greater Cincinnati for programs that benefit children in the region in the areas of arts/culture, education, healthcare, social services and other community needs. Greater Cincinnati is defined as the eight-county metropolitan area made up of the counties of Hamilton, Butler, Warren and Clermont in Ohio; Boone, Kenton and Campbell in Northern Kentucky; and Dearborn in Indiana. The Foundation does not make grants to individuals, for scholarships for individuals, for debt reduction, and, with rare exception, for capital fund projects. Grants are usually made for one year and subsequent grants for an extended or ongoing program are based on an evaluation of annual results. Multiple grants to an organization in the Foundation's same fiscal year (September through August) are possible, but rare. The Foundation looks favorably on applications that leverage a grant to seek additional funding and resources. The Foundation's directors/officers regularly evaluate the organization's grantmaking focus and priorities based on an assessment of current community needs and available resources.

Grant applicants are strongly urged to review the Grant Guidelines and Grant Evaluation Form before starting to complete the Grant Request/Application Form. This will help them better understand the Foundation's background and grant-making priorities thereby improving the likelihood of approval for some and saving valuable time for others whose application may not be consistent with the Foundation's grantmaking focus.

The Grant Request/Application process requires a minimum of 60 days from the time an application is received until a grant request is approved or declined. The Grant Request/Application form asks the date by which a funding decision is requested or needed. Directors/officers meet monthly to evaluate grant applications. Once an application is approved, funds are dispersed to the grant recipient organization in about two weeks.

Charles H. Dater, 1912-1993

Philanthropist, Businessman, Cincinnatian

Charles Hixson Dater was born in Cincinnati in 1912. A brother, the only other child of Charles Henry Dater and his wife Ona, died as an infant 12 years before Charles was born.

Charles grew up in Northside and attended North Presbyterian Church. He graduated from the University of Cincinnati and earned a master's in business administration at Harvard University. He served as an officer in the U.S. Army during World War II.

His father died when Charles was only 17 years old, and he was thrust into management of the family's holdings at an early age.

After his mother died, his full-time focus became the family's investments and residential land development in Western Hills, where he lived in a modest three-bedroom ranch home. He died in 1993.

Many Greater Cincinnati institutions and charities benefited from his generosity through the years, both before and after the establishment of the Foundation; but Charles preferred that his gifts be anonymous and unrecognized.

He made the decision in the mid-1980s to establish a foundation to preserve the family's memory and to ensure that funding through grants for worthwhile community programs would continue.

The Dater family and its ties to Cincinnati dates back four generations. Charles's great grandfather, Adam Dater, emigrated from Germany and settled in Cincinnati in 1830. Hard work and business acumen were hallmarks of succeeding generations of Dater family members, who generously shared their success with their community. A Cincinnati high school and Montessori school are named in honor of Gilbert Dater, grandfather of Charles.
